Steamboat, Colorado

Trip Report

We had a nice mix of both new and existing members as well as guests from the Charlotte Ski club join us for our latest Steamboat adventure.

We arrived in Hayden to clear blue skies and ready to take on the world! Unfortunately, the world kicked back right away with a miscommunication to the shuttle company, and a labor shortage hitting the main shuttle provider for the Steamboat area. These factors caused a delay getting to our condos, but the group stayed cheerful and we made the best of it.

Once in our condos we had a great view of the mountain and our mixture of new friends blended very well! Of the 25 attendees, we had folks from Tennessee, North Carolina, Michigan, and Arizona. Several of the group had never met, and even some of the condo-mates were meeting each other for the first time. The groups mixed very well and all had a great time making memories with new friends.

Monday night we had our group dinner at The Truffle Pig located at the base area of Steamboat. They have a great reputation and did not disappoint! We started with Truffle Fries and Bacon Wrapped Dates, then had a choice of entrées. It was a toss-up for which one of the choices was best between the Prime Rib, Double Cut Porkchop, Atlantic Salmon, or the Wild Mushroom Ravioli! Then to finish off the evening we had an assortment of cookies, lemon bars and carrot cake bites. Everyone enjoyed the dinner and a couple of guests stated "This was the best group meal I've ever had on a ski trip". High praise indeed!

On Wednesday some of the group took time to visit the Strawberry Hot Springs. It was a beautiful night under the stars and was very relaxing. As much as a good hot tub soak at the end of the day is, I highly recommend visiting the natural springs to really recharge your body.

The beautiful weather continued throughout the week but it also drove the temperatures up, and by Thursday we were living the reality that sometimes too much of a good thing can be a bad thing! The snow cover was dwindling and afternoon conditions were turning to mush. This also led to early morning iciness, so was condensing our ski days.

Friday brought in some light snow, but also low light conditions. Those that ventured out took their time skiing down and mixed in some extended breaks during the day. The weather broke with some more sunshine in the early afternoon so several of us finished the day with good light conditions and great runs to end our ski season.

On Friday night we said farewell to our new friends during the Farewell potluck dinner. There were many excellent contributions and most everything was finished off! It was a short night as several people were leaving early, but ended up being a great finish to the week.

Saturday saw more snow come in early, so it did play havoc on the flight situations. Everyone was able to get out of Hayden, but several were stuck overnight in Denver or Dallas depending on their airline. Everyone made it home on Sunday, even though some of their bags did not.

Overall, it was a fun trip and I appreciated everyone's patience with the initial shuttle issues, and delays on getting home. There were many new friends made, old friendships strengthened for the group, and we definitely look forward to our next adventure!
